

Kevin Grundy
Managing Director
Kevin Grundy International Business Development

Kevin Grundy is Managing Director of Kevin Grundy International Business Development based in Sydney.

KGIBD is a consulting company offering a multi-faceted service to assist medical manufacturers in developing their international business.

Kevin has 29 years experience in international business development and exporting for the medical industry.

Kevin has extensive experience in developing international business in the Middle East and has completed a number of dedicated briefs of the region for multi national companies.